

OFFICE OF
The Woman's Journal,

NO. 3 TREMONT PLACE.

Boston, May 2 1872

Dear Mr. Garrison
Like Job's messenger of evil. Mr. Livermore, after having solemnly promised also
Mrs. Dunn Clark, and Mr. Burleigh, at the last moment all decline to go to New York meeting, May 9th.

I felt a sudden "quake;" as though something might happen
any day, so I waited to see if he be there.

I shall go to the Will Maria boat
on Wednesday night.

Very Ardently yours
S. J. Stone

- (1) Greeley supported the Ku-Klux laws.
- (2) "A fanatic on protective tariff."
- (3) "A man of eccentric habits, pickle habit, & inconsistent conclusions."
- (4) Workers held up as electives for Grant.
- (5) Greeley re-nomination of Grant in 1871.
- (6) Lin. ballots - (1) 526 to 147 - (2) 465 to 226 -
(3) 466 to 258 - (4) 473 to 251 - (5) 456 to 258 - (6) 382 to 332 - [by changing, 482
for G. to 187 for Adams.] - (669)

x

"Give the owner compensation;
Fill up the bag to the brim!
Who is the owner? The slave is owner!
And ever was! Pay him!"

x

Political Wolves in Sheep's Clothing